

Women Seafarers

In today's world, women have shown their capability in various sectors and successfully carried all kinds of responsibilities, including in the maritime industry.

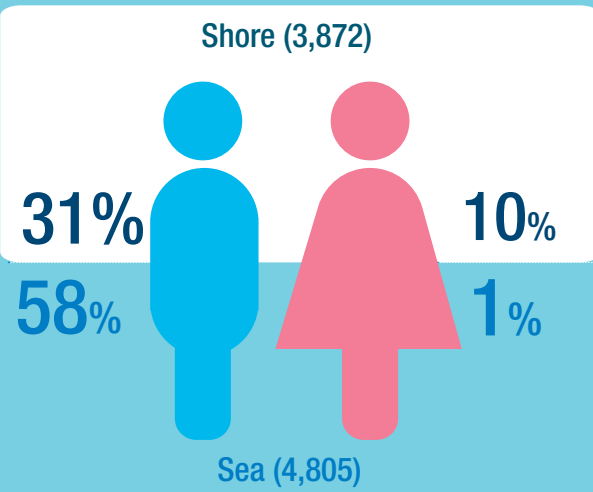

While this has always been a traditionally male dominated field, the entry of women in the seafaring workforce is a growing trend.

Women seafarers are capable of contributing to the maritime workforce as well as bring success and wellness to the industry.

90 Female Seafarers within ranks in MISC Group

MISC Employees Profile

Women comprises

2%

of seafarers population globally

5

women seafarers hired for Eaglestar in 2017

132

female cadets sponsored since 2006 by MISC

Nurturing Future Seafarers

Key Focus

VISION

To consistently provide better education and training in shaping the next generation of global maritime leaders

91

Sponsored new cadets under Eaglestar for 2017

Finalist for the Lloyd's List Asia Pacific 2017 Awards in the "Excellence in Training Award" category

ALAM consistently ranked amongst the TOP 10% of the world's Maritime Education & Training (MET) institutions

25 June

has been announced as Day of the Seafarer by IMO